

How well did you read "The BFG"?

1: How did the BFG find the Queen's bedroom?

He asked Sophie what the Queen looked like.

He listened for a woman's breathing.

He looked in every window.

He guessed.

2: What was in the middle of London that confused the BFG?

Hyde Park

Sunflower Valley

Western Park

Central Park

3: Why does the BFG put labels on all this jars?

So he knows what kind of food is in each one.

So he can practice writing.

So he can remember what the dreams are about.

So he knows what kind of human is in each one.

4: What does BFG stand for?

Big fast giant

Bone flipping giant

Big friendly giant

Bouncing friendly giant

5: What did the Head of the Army mistake for gun fire when he reached the land of the giants?

the giants wrestling

the waterfall in the land of the giants

the giants snoring

the rocks falling off the mountain

6: Who taught the BFG to speak properly?

The Royal Teacher

The Queen

The Head of the Army

Sophie

7: What did the letters BFG stand for in the story?

Big Friendly Giant

Big Frightening Gargoyle

Bold Foolish Grandpa

Bald Fat Guy

8: What was used to make the BFG's table when he ate breakfast with the Queen?

file cabinets and a pool table

statues and a stage

grandfather clocks and a ping-pong table

flag poles and oak trees

9: What lined the walls of the giant's cave?

Jars

More trumpet things

Suitcases

Children

10: Why couldn't the BFG stop the other giants from eating people?

He had been banished from giant country.

They would just ignore him because they thought he was silly for not eating people.

He was smaller than all the other giants.

He was shy and could not talk to them.