

Morning

Grammar – Irregular Plurals

Demonstrate your language arts skills by replacing the word in parentheses with the correct word. Rewrite the sentences correctly.

1. This park is for (childs). children
This park is for children.
2. There were ten (mans) in our group.
3. They called him "Bigfoot" because his (foots) were big.
4. I have lost four (tooths) this year.
5. The cat likes to chase the (mouses)

Morning

Grammar – Irregular Plurals

Demonstrate your language arts skills by replacing the word in parentheses with the correct word. Rewrite the sentences correctly.

1. This park is for (childs). children
This park is for children.
2. There were ten (mans) in our group.
3. They called him "Bigfoot" because his (foots) were big.
4. I have lost four (tooths) this year.
5. The cat likes to chase the (mouses)

Morning Grammar - Irregular Plurals Answers

1. children. This park is for children.
2. men. There were ten men in our group.
3. feet. They called him "Bigfoot" because his feet were big.
4. teeth. I have lost four teeth this year.
5. mice. The cat likes to chase the mice.