

Adjectives

Adjective that tell what kind or how many.

Choose the correct answer to each question.

Which sentence has an Adjective that tells how many?

- A. Janet collects colorful shells.
- B. She has twenty shells in her collection.
- C. Her friend has an unusual collection too.
- D. She has a collection of old dolls.

Which sentence has an Adjective that tells what kind?

- A. A starfish has five arms.
- B. It has a flat body.
- C. I found two starfish on the beach.
- D. One starfish was covered with sand.

Which sentence has an adjective that tells how many?

- A. We saw many paintings in the museum.
- B. I saw a huge painting of a horse.
- C. The horse had a golden mane.
- D. It was galloping through a green meadow.

Which sentence has an adjective that tells what kind?

- A. There are seven children in my family.
- B. Three children are girls.
- C. Four children are boys.
- D. We have wonderful times together.

Which sentence has an Adjective that tells how many?

- A. My mother walked into the small store.
- B. She saw ten watches.
- C. The gold watches were behind the counter.
- D. She wanted to buy an old watch.

Using a, an, and the.

Choose the correct answer to each question.

In which sentence should the word 'an' be used?

- A. Bobby rode _____ bus into town.
- B. Then he took _____ airplane to New York.
- C. Aunt Jody met _____ plane.
- D. I hope they have _____ nice visit.

In which sentence should the word 'a' be used?

- A. My grandmother gave me _____ unusual present.
- B. It is _____ old book of poems.
- C. Some of _____ pages are yellow.
- D. This book belonged to _____ friend of hers.

In which sentence should the word 'an' be used?

- A. Ray sat on _____ chair to eat his lunch.
- B. In her lunch box was _____ sandwich.
- C. She drank _____ glass of milk.
- D. For dessert she had _____ orange.

In which sentence should the word 'a' be used?

- A. Jack's family lives on _____ island.
- B. Sometimes they travel in _____ fishing boat.
- C. This boat has sails and _____ engine.
- D. On windy days, they raise _____ sails.