Describing My Bedroom

Write a descriptive report about your bedroom, describing the design, color scheme, and contents of the room in such vivid detail that the reader will be able to visualize this room without having to ask you any questions.

Before you write your descriptive report:

- Think about the shape and structure of your bedroom
- Think about how you have the furniture organized in your room
- Think about how the furniture looks
- Think about the color scheme and the accessories you have in your bedroom
- Think about the words you could use to help your reader visualize the room

To write well, you must be able to answer the following questions first:

- What is your topic? _____
- Who is your audience? _____
- What is the purpose of your writing? _____
- To be effective, what form should your writing take? _____

Now write the descriptive report of your bedroom.

If you need more space to write, attach additional pages to this one.
